Milan, Dec. 20. N. S.

PRince Eugene came hither the 14th Inſtant, and the Marquis de Prie, Commiſſary-General in the Emperor's Service, arrived the 16th from Parma, where he has made an Agreement with that Duke, that his Country ſhall be exempted from Winter Quarters, provided he pays 80000 Ducats, by way of Contribution, towards the Subſiſtence of the Imperial Troops; and frequent Conferences are now held between Prince Eugene and the Marquis, to conſult upon the providing Quarters for thoſe Troops, which were deſigned to have been quartered in the Parmeſan. The Troops of Heſſe, with ſeveral Imperial Regiments, are employed in the Blockade of Cremona, which is commanded by the Prince of Heſſe-Caſſel, who has taken his Quarters at Horeſma. The French, who are quartered in and about Mantua, frequently ſend out Parties to diſturb them; but they are generally routed, the Confederates keeping always a very good Guard every where. The rainy Seaſon hinders the attacking of Cremona by the way of a formal Siege, as it does likewiſe the intended Siege of our Caſtle; and renders the Attack of Valenza more tedious than was expected. The Gariſon of Cazal is employed in repairing the Fortifications of that Place. There were found in it, when it was lately taken by the Confederates, 75 Pieces of Cannon, and great Quantities of Ammunition, and Stores of all kinds, which the Enemy had laid up there.

Vienna, Dec. 22. Prince Charles of Lorrain, Biſhop of Oſnabrug, ſet out from hence the 20th Inſtant for Oſnabrug, and the Princeſs Sobieski for Gra in Stiria. The Elector Palatine is ſhortly expected here from Duſſeldorp; as Prince Eugene likewiſe is from Italy. Count Windiſgratz, a Colonel of the Daniſh Forces in the Emperor's Service in Hungary, arrived here the 18th Inſtant from the Army commanded by General Rabutin, which he left the 29th paſt near Debreczin. They write from Gran, That a Party of that Gariſon lately defeated one of the Malecontents, having killed many of them, and taken ſeveral Priſoners. The Malecontents have lately made ſome Incurſions, and burnt ſeveral Villages on the Frontiers of Stiria.

Dreſden, Dec. 24. The Swediſh General Meyerfeld came hither the 22d Inſtant from Alt-Ranſtad, the King of Sweden's Quarter, with an Invitation from his Majeſty to the Princes James and Conſtantine Sobieski: They accordingly ſet out for that Place yeſterday Morning, and were met about 3 Leagues off by Prince Alexander their Brother, who went back with them towards Alt-Ranſtad. The King of Poland is ſhortly expected here from Leipſick, as are alſo the Queen from Bareith, and the Electreſs Dowager, with the Electoral Prince, from the Dutchy of Holſtein.

Hague, January 4. N. S. The Deputies of the States General had a Conference the firſt Inſtant with the Miniſters of the Allies reſiding here. The ſame Day General Dopff left this Place, in order to go to Maſtricht, and afterwards to Bruſſels. The Officers in the Pay of this State have begun to raiſe Recruits, in order to have their ſeveral Regiments compleat early in the Spring. Letters from Raſtad give an Account, That Prince Lewis of Baden received the Extreme Unction the 24th of the laſt Month, and was looked upon to be in a dangerous Condition. They write from Saxony, That the King of Poland made another Viſit to the King of Sweden at Alt-Ranſtad the 23d paſt, and went the next Day to Dreſden, intending to continue there a Week, and to return afterwards to Leipſick. They write from the French Conqueſts, That there is to be an Alteration in the ſeveral Commands of the French Generals the next Campaign, the Duke of Orleans being to command in Alſace, the Duke of Vendoſme in Italy, and Marſhal Catinat in Flanders. Letters from Paris ſay, they had Advice that the Marquis de Bay came the 15th paſt with a Body of French and Spaniſh Troops before Alcantara in Eſtramadura, and retook that Place, which the Confederates had taken from the Enemy the laſt Campaign.

Falmouth, December 23. Yeſterday a Ship of about 100 Tuns, without Maſts or Men, was driven on ſhore near the Deadman's-Point. The ſame Day came in the Winter of Amſterdam, a Dogger laden with Wines from Bourdeaux, and homeward bound. This Day ſailed hence the Griffin of Middlebourg, Captain Huy Commander, to cruiſe; as did alſo the Expedition Packet-Boat for Lisbon; and the Dove Galley, Henry Sherbone Maſter, for Viana.

Plimouth, Dec. 24. Yeſterday arrived here Sir William Whetſtone, on board Her Majeſty's Ship the Suffolk, with the Briſtol, Reſerve, and Vulcan Fireſhip, and 6 Merchantmen from Jamaica. This Day came in the Penroſe of Falmouth from Rotterdam; the Lexington, bound for the Canaries; and the Lewis, for Jamaica. At the ſame time ſailed hence ſeveral of Her Majeſty's Ships to the Weſtward, and the Expedition, and 8 Swediſh Ships bound for Portugal. This Evening ſailed the Cheſter, and about 10 Merchant Ships from Virginia, bound for Briſtol.

Dartmouth, Dec. 24. Yeſterday ſailed hence the Phenix Sloop, Captain Coach Commander, bound for Oporto; the Lewis Sloop, Captain Fernando, for Jamaica; and the Penroſe Brigantine, Captain Peacock, for Lisbon.
